The NSS unit of Sree Chitra Thirunal College of Engineering (SCTCE) has received numerous awards and recognitions, highlighting its commitment to community service and student engagement. Notably, the unit was honoured with the Best NSS Unit Award for both the 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 academic years, demonstrating its consistent excellence at the university level. Program Officers Rejimoan R and Subha V were awarded the Best Program Officer Awards for their exemplary leadership during these periods. Volunteers S. Janavarshini and Swathi Santhosh were recognized with Best Volunteer Awards at both the university and state levels, with Janavarshini also receiving a citation from the Department of Higher Education, Government of Kerala in 2020.

In addition to these, the NSS unit received several appreciations for their specific initiatives. The Erythro 3.0 Blood Donation Camp, organized by the unit in 2020, earned significant recognition for its successful execution. Moreover, the unit's Project Ganitham was honoured with the Silverline Award in 2023, highlighting its impactful outreach in providing free mathematics education to students in government schools. The unit also received the Kingship Award from Insight for Innovation in 2022 for its outstanding performance in outreach programs.

Participation in national camps and programs further exemplifies the dedication and leadership of NSS volunteers. S. Janavarshini and Swathi Santhosh represented the unit at the Pre-Republic Day Camps in 2019 and 2020, respectively, with Janavarshini also participating in the 71st Republic Day Parade. Other notable participations include Shelma C Sajan in the National Integration Camp 2020, Megha Narayanan A S in the Pre-Republic Day Camp 2021, and Mayuri M in the National Integration Camp 2022. These participations have provided the volunteers with valuable experiences and opportunities to showcase their leadership skills on national platforms.

The consistent recognition and participation in prestigious events reflect the NSS unit's unwavering commitment to fostering social responsibility and leadership among students. By receiving awards from university, state, and government bodies, the unit's efforts in promoting environmental sustainability, public health, and community development have been duly acknowledged. These accolades serve as a testament to the unit's effectiveness in driving positive change and inspiring future generations to engage in meaningful community service.
